The Annual of Progress

COLUMBIA BIBLE COLLEGE

COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

"But thanks be unto God, who always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savor of His knowledge in every place."

II Corinthians 2:14

Robert E. McQuilkin

. . . the signature and the signature verse, the man and the man's message: these are inseparable.

We have had the privilege of knowing in our lifetime a "five-crown Christian" . . . one to whom to live was Christ. All of his abilities and virtues were most perfectly balanced and blended together to make him a "prince among men."

It is to him and to his faithful companion that we dedicate this book.

The young missionary and his wife saw God close the door to the foreign fields when the boat on which they were scheduled to sail sank in the New York harbor. God was soon to reveal that He had a different plan for making "manifest through (them) the savor of His knowledge in every place." Like Jesus, Dr. McQuilkin began training others for the work of God; and through them the good news of Salvation and Victory is reaching every continent of the sphere.

Think of those days when he taught us. There was a big smile on his face as he entered the classroom. We joined him as he began singing "Sin Shall Not Have Dominion Over You." And for fifty-one minutes we listened as he expounded to us the message of victory in Romans 6. How our hearts were thrilled to hear him say, "Oh, young people, don't you get the reality of this truth?" How greatly enriched will be our lives of service and devotion because we have received the message of the indwelling Christ from our "father" in the faith . . .

"Christ liveth in me.

Christ liveth in me,

Oh, what a salvation this,

That Christ liveth in me."

In future decades we shall be able to see that "yesterday, today, and forever" his message of perpetual joy in victory is the same—YIELD and TRUST. To those who are continuing this work of faith, the promise is, "AS I was with Moses, SO I will be with thee."

Dr. McQuilkin was always "looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." One day in the consummation of time and the manifestation of this faith. Mrs. McQuilkin and her five children will be reunited with one whose love they shared; and we will rejoice to bow with them before the Throne and give glory to the Lamb of Redemption and Victory forever and ever!

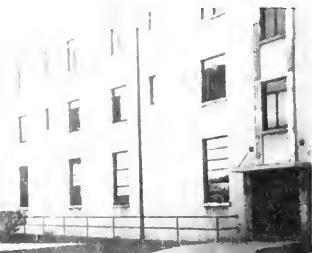

It was a man of faith who founded Columbia Bible College. For a quarter of a century, Dr. McQuilkin trusted God each month for all the allowances of the Bible College. During that time he saw an evening Bible class, which met in a hotel room, grow into a Bible College of 400 students and a million dollar campus.

"Faith, mighty faith, the promise sees
And looks to God alone;
Laughs at impossibilities
And cries, 'It shall be done!'"

On October 1, 1943, a definite goal of faith was reached when the last payment on the men's campus was made. Then again on Thanksgiving Day, 1950, upon the announcement that the remainder of the $250,000 needed for the new dormitory building had been supplied, the Bible College auditorium was swelled with the praises of the Bible College family as they sang forth the glad proclamation, "Great is Thy Faithfulness."

Seniors

"Looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith . . ." (Hebrews 12:2), our class year verse, was kept in mind in all of our class gatherings.

We had a great expectation from Him as we left on Senior Day, with hearts gladdened by the verse given to us by the Junior class: "The path of the righteous is as the dawning light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Proverbs 4:18).

In our times of fun and feasting together, in our periods of personal meditation, and in the closing testimony service, the Lord met us in a very new way.

The welcome song sung by the Juniors on our return added to the warmth of our hearts:

"Humas agapomen" be our words, too.
And may His constant blessing be on you;
For here is wondrous victory—
Victory in Christ our Lord.

It is hard to leave the school and the people whom we love very much. We are unable to express fully the deep appreciation that we have for the faculty, staff, board, and fellow students of our beloved Alma Mater for all that they have meant to us. God grant that the sacred purpose of Columbia Bible College may be fulfilled in each of our lives.

Juniors

We have known the presence of the Lord this year in an even greater way than ever before.

It was our first social of the year. Several had led in the closing prayer of our devotional period when suddenly a new realization of the greatness of the Lord's grace shined upon us. An unexpected revival brought conviction of sin to our hearts, prayers of confession to our lips, and tears of sorrow and rejoicing to our eyes. The love and joy that was experienced that night became ours for the whole year.

His strength was ours as we carried out the responsibilities of the Finial and the Junior-Senior Banquet. The unity He gave us sparkled as we sneaked along the trail of the Seniors; and the prayer days and class-meetings became new turning points in our lives. But still we are confident that the best year is yet to be experienced. "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from Him" (Psalm 62:5).

Sophomores

Can we possibly be sophomores already? That's the way we felt, as we reviewed our first year of Bible College. How wonderful it was to see how the Lord had met us and taught us so many things! Some of the lessons had been learned "the hard way," but all were precious to our hearts as were the memories of learning together.

Our class project has been a monthly prayer letter to the twenty fellow students who did not return to our class this year. The Lord has abundantly rewarded us with encouraging answers from them telling of God's blessing. We prayed for these students each week, bringing their requests "with joy" before the Lord and rejoicing in the knowledge that they were doing the same for us.

We praise the Lord for the revival He has brought into our own hearts, for wonderful fruitfulness in Christian service, for the faithfulness of our class officers and for the priceless guidance of our class advisor. We look forward with expectant hearts to two more glorious years here of being "led in triumph by Christ."

As students of a Christ-honoring school, members of a family of united Christians, and recipients of an abundance of blessings, we rejoice to call ourselves Columbia Bible College students.

History term papers and Religious Education memory verses, dormitory life and dining room meals, class and school social activities, Christian Service opportunities and witnessing at the State Fair, the Student Conference and the Spring Conference, chapel messages, class devotions, and our personal quiet times, class prayer meetings, dormitory prayer meetings, and school prayer meetings and prayer days—these have combined to make our first year a most glorious one.

One year verse was "As Thou hast said, so must we do" (Ezra 10:12b). Looking forward to three more blessed years, with an even greater spirit of expectancy, we endeavor to be for His glory "sons and daughters noble."

Graduate

Coming from twenty-eight different states of the Union and from forty colleges and universities, with undergraduate studies completed in many various fields, but united in Christ and in the common determination "to know Him and to make Him known," fifty new grads and twenty-four returning students made up the enrollment of the graduate School of Missions for the year '52-'53.

Hardly had classes commenced before we all began to realize afresh the enormity of the task before us: that of mastering the Word of God and coming to a clear integrated view of the Christian Revelation in this year within the Atomic Age. As we attended chapel and participated in our special grad retreats, we began to apprehend the glorious Life of Victory that our Lord has purposed us to live.

Fun at grad retreat.

The horizons of our outlook on Christian Service were broadened, not only through our individual assignments in and around Columbia, but also through seeking to labor on behalf of the needy souls living at the Aiken trailer camps and the Catawba Indian Reservation. How often we were quickened to serve more effectively through using more faithfully the weapon of "all power."

This year has truly been a year of vision. And we are sure the years ahead will find us claiming our year verse. "Through God we shall do valiently." (Psalm 60:12)

In Memoriam

During the school term last year, we little realized our classmate Gordon Legant would not be with us this year. The Lord, in His infinite wisdom, saw fit to take him to heaven. He drowned at Gull Lake, Michigan, on July 13, 1952. May the homegoing of this friend challenge us to redeem every moment of our short lives.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

Psalm 116:15

In September of 1952, Walter Erikson, a graduate of the Columbia Bible College, and Edward Tritt, a former student, journeyed into the interior of Netherlands New Guinea to lay the plans for future missionary work among the unreached tribal peoples. They did not know then that they were to be the first martyrs in the history of the Bible College.

On November 10, 1952, a cable from the governor of Netherlands New Guinea bore the news:

"Deeply regret announced death by violence of missionaries Erikson and Tritt. Mutilated bodies found 17 October in river Ainin near village Maeopas . . . "

To what purpose is this waste? Hear the answer from the martyrs' graves: ". . . for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but refuse, that I may gain Christ."

Two "grains of wheat" have died! And through many newly challenged lives, they will bring forth much fruit.

In all of its relations to the faculty, the student body of C.B.C. is represented by the Student Council. The purpose of the Student Council is to incorporate Christian standards into all phases of student life and to direct all student extracurricular activity.

The council's Program Committee plans and directs the special programs presented by the students. The Social Committee is in charge of the social events of the school. The Music Committee arranges the musical programs. The Morale Committee is given the responsibility of securing the co-operation of the students in the program of student responsibility, regarding dormitory and social regulations.

Foreign Fellow

Having the earnest desire to make the Lord Jesus Christ known to all the world, the students of C.B.C. join together each Saturday evening to quicken their missionary interest through considering the needs of the regions beyond. Following these regular missionary programs, the students divide into small groups to intercede for the particular needs of the various fields, and on behalf of the almost 400 C.B.C. alumni who have gone to the foreign field.

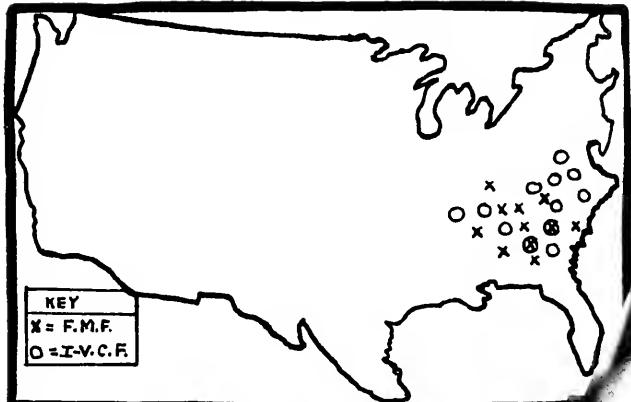

The national organization of F.M.F. was organized in 1937 by college students meeting at Ben Lippen Conference and at Keswick Conference. Students at C.B.C. had an important part in initiating this movement, and the F.M.F. chapter at C.B.C. has made a substantial contribution both to the cause of missions on our campus and to the growth and influence of the national organization.

Missions ship

In 1950 this organization joined the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship and today is the foreign missionary arm of this aggressive student organization on the campuses of America's schools.

Membership in the F.M.F. is twofold. There are active members who purpose to go to the foreign mission field, believing it to be God's will for their lives; and there are associate members who are burdened for missions, but who are still seeking specific guidance relative to their future service.

The whole drive of the Bible College is to keep the Great Commission in its God-ordained place of prominence.

It was with much delight that we welcomed the return of Mr. William Supplee, after his year's leave of absence. He has resumed his position as head of the music department and director of the choir.

During the spring months the Ambassador choir made trips through the Southeastern area, ministering in music, testimony, and personal contact to young people in churches, high schools, and homes. Joy and blessing were with the choir as they sang out the message of salvation, surrender, and service.

First carryall in the C.B.C. fleet, 1938.

"And this is life eternal, that they may know thee, the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent." "To make Him known" is the purpose of each young woman at C.B.C. as weekly she proclaims the Gospel of Christ in the Street Meetings, Bible Clubs, Public Schools, Sunday Schools, Rural Churches, Hospitals, Penal Institutions, and on deputation teams serving in churches of nearby cities. Integrating actual service and the theories underlying it, Christian Service classes are conducted each week instructing students to teach, speak, and lead groups of all ages. Thus the students are prepared to minister to waiting hearts.

The C.B.C. fleet today, 1953

"Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men." Yes, week by week the men on Christian Service assignments persuade men to accept this marvelous message of the Christ of Calvary. They reach out to the servicemen, penal institutions, the needy sinner on the street corner, the churches, Sunday School classes, hospitals, and even to the uttermost parts of Columbia and its vicinity. God has given C.B.C. this city as a challenge in service to Him. Because of this, the students of C.B.C. should be more than ready to persuade men.

C.B.C. alumni, though scattered around the world, are vitally united to the Bible College by the work of the Alumni Association. This twenty-three year old organization declares as its aim "to cooperate with the Bible College in its purpose as expressed in the motto, 'To Know Him and To Make Him Known'; to promote fellowship among the graduates; to combine our efforts for the work of the Bible College."

Miss Marguerite McQuilkin, Alumni Secretary, has supervised the publishing of the CeBeCequel and the alumni directory, handled all alumni correspondence, and managed the campus office. Marguerite resigned in November, 1952, after serving faithfully for five years.

At the glorious homecoming on Thanksgiving Day, the theme of "Marching On" was based on the verses, "And the Lord said . . . go forward" (Exodus 14:15) and "O my soul, march on with strength" (Judges 5.21). As the project for 1952-53, the Alumni Association wholeheartedly voted to give through the Association to the McQuilkin Memorial, for which plans were announced at Thanksgiving.

Forensic

Forensic offers to the men students of C.B.C. a type of education that is essential to different phases of Christian Service and that is obtained through no other organization of C.B.C. The preamble of the Forensic constitution reads as follows: "Inasmuch as the sovereign God has commanded men everywhere to dedicate themselves and all things unto Him and to exercise dominion over all things according to His will, we are bound to do His will. Therefore, this Society has been established that the men of Columbia Bible College may have practical experience in parliamentary procedure, have practice in public speaking, and hear lectures in realms necessary to the perfection of a well-rounded disciple of Christ."

The chapel program which reviewed the news of '52 through the world's, God's, and Satan's cameras provided additional experience for some of the members as well as some very worthwhile information for the students.

Phi Alpha

Phi Alpha has come a long way since it was founded in 1932, with Mr. Frank Sells officiating as president. Yes, the Philobiblonian Literary Society was then open to both men and women. Later it was necessary for the men to organize a separate society because of the increase in the number of members. The name Philobiblonian means lover of books; and the purpose of the society was to introduce the members to the great masters in literature, to acquaint them with the art of public speaking, and to school them in parliamentary procedure.

Exactly twenty years later, in 1952, the Philobiblonian Society stepped down and the Phi Alpha Society took its place. Phi Alpha are the letters representing the Greek words Philo Agathos which mean lovers of the good; that which is useful and beautiful. The goal of this new society is to cultivate that which is characteristic of a gracious woman in her obligations to the home, to the church and to society. We have chosen as our motto the verse found in Philippians 4:8. "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

CeBeCean

"To the praise of His glory." Ephesians 1:12

Student opinion on various things of interest . . . details on special school events . . . highlights of student activity . . . comments on significant world events . . . these are compiled and recorded, with spots of humor and human interest, and placed in the hands of each student by means of the CeBeCean, the school newspaper.

The fall semester found the CeBeCean facing a critical period in its history, that of being shelved for a time. And, as in the Christian life the Lord begins to work only after the individual is willing to be nothing, so in the work of the CeBeCean much prayer and planning were given to the problem, and from this evolved a complete face-lifting for the paper. Not only was the original layout changed, but there was an earnest desire to have the content such that it would meet the highest standards of the Bible College. As the year has passed, the whole staff has been conscious of the Lord in His divine mercy fulfilling the verse He gave for the year, Ephesians 1:12: "To the praise of His glory."

"Thy towers are pointing upward, toward God and Heaven and Light." Crowning each of C.B.C.'s towers is a bud-like finial, from which this book received its name.

The continual growth of the Bible College is reflected in the growth of its annual. From the small, 43-page, paper-backed edition of 1939, the Finial has grown to the present large, 108-page book with a stiff-back, embossed cover. However, its purpose is still the same—to present a permanent pictorial record of the activities and student life of Columbia Bible College.

This year we, as the Finial staff, have learned what it is to constantly look to God for wisdom, strength, and guidance. We trust that this book of memories of the school year 1952-53 will be the means of pointing many to "God and Heaven and Light."

Repairing the equipment
Operating the station

Sometimes the life of a missionary depends upon sending a message to a doctor or nurse quickly. If simple radio communication is available, days and weeks of waiting for a message can be saved.

In 1949, when they realized this, thirteen people, including Dr. Culley, Mr. Fetner, five girls and six fellows, met together to form the first Radio Club of C.B.C. They drew up a constitution and applied to the F.C.C. for a station license. The F.C.C. issued a license with the station call letters W4PKD.

In order to operate this ham station, one must have an amateur license. To obtain a license one must know enough theory and have enough practice to enable him to construct and operate his own station and must have the ability to send the International Morse Code at a rate of thirteen words per minute. This knowledge and practice is offered to Bible College students in a class on Radio Communications.

At present there are two active licensed operators of W4PKD, and two persons with license pending, and transmitters that operate on two of the amateur bands. Construction has been started on transmitters to operate on two other bands. Under the right atmospheric conditions, especially with the new antennae atop the new dormitory building, this short-wave equipment is able to reach any place in the world.

The goal for the future is to establish regular missionary amateur "traffic nets" throughout the world.

Football

In the inter-class football games this year, the Junior class came out on top. Following them in line were the Grads, Sophomores, Freshmen, and Seniors.

On Thanksgiving Day the annual "Grits Bowl" game was played. The Junior-Freshman Gridsters defeated the Senior-Sophomore combine.

Basketball

For the first time our varsity team entered the city league. As the Finial went to press, the school was tied for second place, with some potentiality of winning the double elimination play-offs for the championship. Marshall Davis was the player-coach for this year's basketball team.

Basketball was played by intramural teams also.

MEN WHO THINK

The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund, despite any possible pitfalls, believes that to make men think is the chief end of its ministry. It confidently places its faith in the clergy as a group above the average in intelligence. Friends by the thousands have been made and are being made by the appeal to reason.

Certainly the splendid record of sales proves that a large number of ministers appreciate the Fund's efforts to serve the clergy.

EDUCATION

MINISTRY

TRAINED TO SERVE

These hands could be yours! They are hands of students that have come to Taylor to prepare the "whole man." They are symbolic of lives that have fixed a goal in the future and are assuring themselves every opportunity of success by studying in a fully accredited, liberal arts university, in its 107th year of "Effective Christian Education." Let God train what He has given you in a school where He is honored in all His power.
